

Issue/ 05/ December 2024

NEWSLETTER

“UNTO US A SAVIOR IS BORN”

As we celebrate the miracle of Christmas, we are reminded of the most profound and life-changing truth: "Unto us a Savior is born." This timeless message is not just a proclamation of Jesus' birth, but a declaration of hope, love, and salvation for all of humanity.

In the book of Isaiah, the prophecy of the coming Messiah is beautifully declared: "For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace." (Isaiah 9:6) This child was the promised Savior who came to redeem the world. His birth signifies God's incredible love for us, a love so great that He sent His only Son to live among us, to teach us, to heal us, and to ultimately give His life for our salvation. As we read in John 3:16: "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life."

The birth of Jesus is the fulfillment of God's promise to bring peace and redemption to a broken world. The angel's announcement to the shepherds, who were the first to hear the news, echoes the gift of joy and hope that is for all people: "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord." (Luke 2:10-11)

In His coming, Jesus brought us the light of the world a light that shines in the darkness and cannot be overcome by it. As we read in the Gospel of John: "The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it." (John 1:5)

ESSENTIAL VERSES

"For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace."
—Isaiah 9:6

"But the angel said to them, 'Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord.'
—Luke 2:10-11

"The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth."
—John 1:14

"She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins."
—Matthew 1:21

"But when the set time had fully come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, to redeem those under the law, that we might receive adoption to sonship."
—Galatians 4:4-5

"Here is a trustworthy saying that deserves full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners—of whom I am the worst."
—1 Timothy 1:15

"You will conceive and give birth to a son, and you are to call him Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over Jacob's descendants forever; his kingdom will never end."
—Luke 1:31-33

"This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger."
—Luke 2:12

The Savior born to us is not just a historical figure, but a living presence that continues to change lives today. His love, His grace, and His teachings offer us a path to true peace, joy, and eternal life. And as we celebrate His birth, we are invited to reflect on the true meaning of Christmas — not just in the gifts we give, but in the gift of His presence in our lives.

Let us, this Christmas, open our hearts to the Savior who has come to us, knowing that He is the "Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, and Prince of Peace." Let us embrace His love and share that love with others, as we follow His example of humility, kindness, and grace. "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests." (Luke 2:14)

May the peace, joy, and love of Christ fill your heart and home this Christmas and throughout the New Year. Merry Christmas, and may God's blessings be with you always!